Subject: Research Europe media request

Message:

Dear Mr Krauss,

My name is Antoaneta Roussi and I'm a reporter for the science-policy publication Research Europe. I am writing a story about your being placed on administrative leave from Arizona State University and losing your place as director of the Origins Project.

I was quite surprised to hear the news as I have seen your interviews multiple times on news channels and you strike me as a very intelligent man.

I would like to ask if you to comment on the allegations tat you violated the university's sexual harassment policy by grabbing a woman's breast at a conference in Australia in 2016.

I would need your comment by lunchtime today as I am on deadline.

Kind Regards,
Antoaneta

Question:

Interested in...

I am a member of the media and would like to request an interview with Lawrence.
