I will let Alan know. Did she ever name the "other girl". The issue is whether you want Alan to testify or are just giving him a heads-up.
He obviously got some others since the report claims it's a class action. Knock it out quickly if you can. Given the hard limits of criminal securities, may be a challenge to assert 5th open-endedly if they seek a deposition although I have already come up with an arguable basis if you don't want to testify. Which Judge? Keep me in loop.

Law 360 reported the civil securities case. Having just finished a criminal securities case, I know the SOL and how that works to protect defendants from being charged for 30 yr old events but if you want I could research the civil SOL to see how it matches. Factually, the idea that no one knew despite the charges against Hoffenberg seems very weak but whether that legally matters should be looked into If not by me, than by someone.
