Good afternoon

Attached for your reference

I initially recommended this light a few months ago and you approved the purchase, and then had concerns regarding quality we did not move forward with order.

After trying out several different brands/Types they all appear to be manufactured to the same specification.

Therefore since you liked the look of the attached light should we proceed in ordering just 250 unit for now?

cost: 6 pack @ $49.97

Can we proceed with ordering?

regards
