Dear [REDACTED],

That was pleasure to talk to you over the phone today

Regarding your application to Glion, as we discussed, the requirement is 80 IBT TOEFL, however you have only 73. Our requirements are strict and most likely the admissions won't proceed.

However, there is a great option to start studies in our sister school Les Roches, Marbella, Spain campus. As Glion and Les Roches are the parts of Sommet Education, both schools follow the same standards and accreditation, thus choosing a campus is more based on subjective issues such as location, budget etc. You will be able to get the same level of education at our Postgraduate program in Les Roches Marbella, as the English level requirement, due to campus location is 70 IBT TOEFL, which you have. The program lasts one year – 1 semester academic part and 1 semester – internship. After finishing it you will have an option to proceed to the second semester of MBA in Les Roches Swiss campus.

Please, see the details here

Tuition fees:

I will be happy to answer all your questions.

Anton
