Edward,

Thank you for opting to remain on our wait list for admission to NYU.

We will begin to assess space to admit students off the wait list as soon as we complete the regular decision admissions process. As you may know, our wait list is unranked, which means we conduct an additional review of wait list candidates before making any offers of admission. To that end, we ask that you take a moment to tell us more about the programs at NYU which you are interested in being considered for, let us know if you would like to be considered for any additional campuses or programs, as well as add any additional accomplishments that you would like us to consider.

If you wish, you may add additional accomplishments at any time between now and when you receive a final admission decision from us, which could be as late as August. This form can be found in your application portal:

Thank you for your continued patience and interest in NYU.

Sincerely,

Jonathan B. Williams
