Good morning,

I spoke with Albert and told him that the VI Little League no longer has a 501(c)3 status which prohibits us from donating to them. He suggested CASA (now VIVA) of STX (<http://www.viva4children.org/About-Us.html>). He agreed that this does not fall under the "public education" EDC requirement but that giving them something would be nice. We also discussed the Community Foundation of the VI because they have a fund that is targeted towards public education/public school initiatives and is approved by the EDA and DOE). He thought that was a good idea.

I suggest:

CASA - $10K

CFVI - $20K with a letter directing them to use the funds for their public school initiative programs.

If we do this we will have donated as follows:

Public:

Junior Achievement $10K

Community Foundation $20K

Private:

Coral Reef Academy $10K

CASA $10K

Thoughts?

With warm regards,

Cecile de Jongh
