Good morning

Quick update

My flight out of ABQ had mechanical issues, so will be traveling back to STT tonight Contacted Lowes and Home Depot, there procedure is purchase product from them, then they put you in contact with a independent contractor to fabricate and install
They where very hesitant regarding Fabricating from shop drawings, and also had concerns regarding shipping.

I have reached out to Miami Kitchen Solvers, Ghislaine will be calling me back later today
Kyle is doing Shop Drawings of all locations
I hoping Ghislaine will be able to put us in contact with independent fabricator in Miami.

Regards Brice

Good evening Jeffrey
I'm transiting thru MIA tomorrow morning
Propose I rent a car and try and resolve this situation, either Home Depot or a independent fabricator

It's a long shot especially so close to Christmas
Kyle can you get me exact measurements by 10 am tomorrow ?
Should I proceed ??

Good Afternoon,

Ken is not in the shop currently. I am very worried about the workmanship and the chipping on the edges. It looks like he has all of the back countertops cut but he has not made any of the 45° cuts made for the fronts. No work has been done on the vanity sinks or flag pole kitchen. I would suggest we get ready for going to EB for a credit or money back.

Kyle
