Nicole:

A pleasure to e-meet, looking forward to in person. I appreciate reading through your nonpareil career. Small world with Ted, though connecting the dots, entirely predictable [I did the CCTV deal, which required highest-level approval and was the catalyst for IMG China's growth and success.]

I will be in New York during January, China and much traveling thereafter - UK not until July.

Let's coordinate after I return to NY; I have an unusual week in Beijing: Tuesday is the 40th anniversary of China's reform and opening up - a really big deal here. You may see news.

Happy Holidays,

Robert

Thank you for the kind introduction Jeffrey, I really appreciate it.

It's very good to connect with you Robert, indeed I remember when Ted told me about China and CCTV! I am pleased to attach copies of my bio and a recent article on Handelsblatt, translated into English.

I have been operating in China for over 10 years, through my investment in Shanghai Really Sports. The company was incorporated more than a decade ago and is the 3rd largest sports goods retailer in China, mainly distributing Adidas and Nike sportswear and equipment. Shanghai Really Sports has more than 700 stores and employs nearly 4000 staff, with a large presence in China first-tier cities and with a dominant position in Shanghai. Shanghai Really Sports is in the shortlist to be a supplier of goods for the Beijing 2022 Olympics.

I've read the material you shared with me and I'm really impressed, so with this in mind I thought it'd be great to meet you face to face if you happen to be in Europe in January. Alternatively, I could come to you in NY early January.

With best regards

Nicole

Nicole:

I see that I have misunderstood, including that you are in China/Beijing.

As you may know, I was IMG's (Ted Forstmann's) partner in creating/building IMG China, before sale to Ari Emanuel. I am familiar with Infront.

I'll be in NY for several weeks beginning at Xmas. We can do Skype/Facetime as well.

Attached is my latest CNN. China media in next email.

Robert
