Congratulations! Here are the documents for the Origins Project Foundation! We should have a conference call sometime in the new year. Can you let me know the earliest date after Jan 1 when you will be available? There are some forms that need to be filled out and stored. I may send all of you a link to the username and password of [REDACTED] where these are stored and generated as well, if that seems necessary or I will simply store them there..

The next step is to file for 501c3 status, which I will have to find out about, and I will find how much that costs.. I think the application costs around $500.

Lawrence
