The first thing I mentioned.. breach of contract, was I thought the important one.. though it will be nice to see if there is any document that outlines the responsibilities and jurisdiction of the committee...

I am working through plans for podcasting option, events, writing now.. After paris will work in detail, and send you some proposals.

hope all is well.

Dear Prof Foster:

Thank you for your letter, which I received by email today, regarding my request. I am wondering whether you, or your assistant, or perhaps the counsel for the Committee, could provide an explanation of what are the specific roles and purview of the grievance committees? Could you provide a description or a link to a description of what is within your jurisdiction to consider and what is not? For example, what group would deal with possible breach of contract issues between the University and faculty members? Is there a group within the University that reviews or monitors governance issues associated with access by faculty to public events or university services on campus?

Thanks for your attention to this request.
