Dear Jeffrey, how are you doing? Is everything going well?

Often in my thoughts I go back to the times when I was living in New York. I remember about the things you taught me. You helped me grow and become a woman. You taught me difficult and important life lessons. You gave me so much in every way. I feel so grateful for everything, not only your enormous financial support but also your time and attention, your thoughtfulness and respect, your kindness and wisdom.

Sending you my love,
