

From: paul krassner <[REDACTED]>

To: "jeffrey E." <jeevacation@gmail.com>

Subject: see below

Date: Thu, 21 Sep 2017 21:57:50 +0000

My wife drove me for a therapeutic massage. She came home and heard the sounds of a robbery. She screamed loud and long and the burglar jumped over the fence. A neighbor called 911. Our cellphone was stolen. Our computers were still on the floor. We're in shock but planning tech security. I hope the Gratitude board will continue the generosity of our contract. I've tried very hard to be a bad little boy.