Good Afternoon,

Good news. Please see the email confirmation below from JPK on shower doors. They are shipping Nov 23 or 21st. This will put all cabana bathrooms finished with doors on the 30th.

Kyle

Good afternoon Kyle,

Manufacturing company is able to confirm the 8-10 business days delivery. They say this is the usual turnaround if no manufacturing delays take place. (ie. machine malfunctions) This is before it ships to Saint Thomas. Since it is located in Florida, it would either ship on Wednesday or Friday. (November 21st or November 23rd)

I submitted the information for the third door on Cabana 3 today. If it doesn't affect the delivery date, they will ship it with the other two. I will follow up by the end of the week to see where we are and will relay any update I receive from them.

Best,

Good Morning Yannick,

EFTA01016872

Thank you for sending over the receipt for the glass shower doors. Cabana 3 will also need one and this will go into the Change Order. I have attached the size and drawing to this email so you can add it to the order or order it separately.

I need the delivery date of cabana 1 and 2 shower doors today, please send email confirmation of 8-10 business days. As long as this is the case we are in great shape and should keep a happy customer.

Please also advise where the EIFS is along with order for the window crowns. Thank you and please let me know if you need anything else from me. Thanks again!

Very Respectfully,

Kyle Reavis
