I know how difficult. and cant imagine the stress. but it is business and not your health. you will, i feel confident. get through it, I m cheering for you. The unfinished biz is with me. not terje, you asked me 4m kron the financing with nordea I arranged with details it appears unknown to you. I gave it to him. this has nothing at all to do with values etc. you made a clear agreement with me. so that is why I am surprised. I have never had a strong word with you. re your problems, if i can help i would and still will. keeping fully in mind an agreement with me is an agreement. sorry. On another note. I am only familiar with us bankruptcy law. where it is really a protection for an ongoing biz. you will become an expert in bankruptcy and then we can start a new biz

Jeff,

I get 70 legal issues mails a day and I have at least two legal submissions a day to deal with in multiple law suits dealing with at least 7 different lawfirms in 5 different jurisdictions and involved in 5 bankruptcies and some debt negotiations at the same time. I simply do not have time for more and your requests for time to talk came last in the priority on that day. Sorry about this.

To be blunt about it. I do not have "unfinished" business right now. I am in trouble and part of the trouble is agreeing to the proposal of clearing out the apartment at an amount equal to less than half its value.

It is in danger of being challenged and that is my main worry.

Terje got the apartment at nok 14 mill or less than half its value and was able to fully finance it in Nordea at 14 mill and he should be very pleased.

I was under no legal obligation to help out and I did and I am expecting nothing but shit from it all - and shit I got and probably will get.
