Good Afternoon Mr Epstein,

I have added in the fuel station and wash-down area. I have also included in this set the overlay location of the building on a satellite view of Christmas Cove. The drawings also include the 1st level storage areas for each department along with small offices above each location. We can fit in these upstairs storage / office areas if we have 20' of clearance. Please let me know what you think. Thank you!

Very Respectfully,

Kyle Reavis
