My feeling is that whilst the lower end of the property market is slowly recovering, the top end is still stagnant. The loan is not forgotten. Hopefully I might just earn a €7.5m Commission on an intro of €500m deal. This will be a lifeline. I was beginning to despair.
Atmosphere is fine, though the King was absent for along time and there was some dissent in the north. I'm sure Jaques will fill you in. But there is no sense of restlessness.
I'm in London, flying back tomorrow or Wednesday to Marrakech.
Any chance you might come by. HBJ arrived last week and I hope to see him over the weekend.
