3pm on the 5th or 12pm on the 6th work for me.

One more thing to consider - we will be in the market in Q1 for Valar V. It would be great to know if Jeffrey is considering investing with us again. Maybe the public markets aren't so great after all...

Dear Investors,

We are pleased to present you with the attached Valar Ventures 2018 Annual Report, which provides an update on all major investments in Valar Funds 1, 2 and 3, as well as a short update on the initial investments we are making in Fund 4.

As you can see, all the funds are performing nicely, and we are seeing a lot of very high quality investment opportunities for Fund 4.

We appreciate your continued support and look forward to catching up with many of you over the coming months.

As always, if you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to us.

Best regards,

James and Andrew
