Good morning sir sorry for the late response as I just woke. However, I called Brice before I left the island asking him if there are any other areas that Sea Grapes are planted other than the area I took pictures of and send to you. He said that there aren't any more areas that has Sea Grapes planted. Again, I made sure I called him and ask him because I did not wanted to leave anything out of the picture and was told that's all base on areas that I vividly saw Sea Grapes.

Thanks.

Regards,
Cashkim.
