Good Afternoon Mr Epstein,

JPK is lower on the barge ramp price than EB. Both include all materials and labor. JPK is pretty busy out here however so I was leaning towards EB to do this work and roll into the boat ramp. I can get either signed up today to get this rolling, please let me know your preference. Thank you!

Very Respectfully,

Kyle

Good Morning,

We have received two prices for the topping slab and fill area from Expert Builders along with JPK. My comments are below;

JPK- $13,487.00
- Listed concrete yards (correct number)
- All materials and labor included
- Cheaper Price ($13,487.00)

Expert Builders- $13,700.00
- No concrete yards listed, left it as TBD so they will owe use as many yards as it takes (not a bad thing for us)
- After speaking to EB and telling them their price was outrageous they included all concrete and materials into their $13,700.00 price; Original price was $13,700 but did not include materials or concrete.
- EB does still owe us a boat ramp that can be formed and poured at the same time as this area

Rich please let me know who you think we should award this work to and I will get them rolling on this asap.

Very Respectfully,

Kyle Reavis
