sorry we couldn't agree on every point. but at least this was the only minor bone of contention.

note the phrase "What I experienced". that is what i experienced... and the word direct is there.. I may change one or two words to make it clearer that I couldn't directly appeal to them.

the guidelines are quite clear there.. and it is one of the kafka esque facts about OEI and it is true at most universitiess.... the inquistor becomes the judge.. makes a decision that you cannot appeal and then shows you the evidence.. you cannot appeal the facts to her, can only appeal the decision about what they are going to do after getting her determination.

all part of the fucked up process.. this is a central part of it.

I was told by the provost that his determination and also the determination of OEI was final. I could not appeal either directly to them... It was a very explicit statement. Their determination ended that part of the process and began the next part.

you had ? no option to directly appeal? why did you put that in?
