Let me see if I understand. You're suggesting that I write a letter that reviews the failures of the Trustees to provide relevant information about distributions from the trust, including the obligatory distributions to me (which we have no record of receiving)? Anything else? To whom should the letter be addressed?

Shouldn't I consult with Vincent before doing anything? Don't want him to feel that I'm making an end-run around his efforts on our behalf.

I wonder whether this is really the right thing to do now. Vincent seems to feel that a settlement is possible that will end the matter of the trust on essentially the terms I proposed (at your suggestion) some time ago. Wouldn't it make sense to see if this can proceed before writing a letter, which would essentially repeat what is in our petition we filed, which reviews all the facts.

welcome back. please pen a letter to use for negotiations. it should be an article as if you are wwriting it for the boston globe about being taken advantage of by a trust and estate lawyer in your later years. it is the most important letter for valerias future. so take some time . make it tough.

Talked to Vincent today. He said that he had been contacted by Max's lawyer -- apparently some big shot insurance lawyer -- who wanted to move towards a settlement out of court, and felt he could bring Harry's lawyer into this. Vincent's own proposal turns out to be what you suggested some time ago, and then I proposed to Harry without response: to arrange to divide up the Trust and then liquidate it. We said OK. He wants to consult a tax lawyer to look into what's involved in closing the Trust. We told him that the only person we trust in this matter is Richard Kahn, and we would therefore consult with him along the way and want him to be apprised of what's taking place.
