Subject: HBS APPLICATION

Dear Eduardo,

I hope this email finds you well.

First of all, I apologise for disturbing you and thank you very much for your time .

As anticipated, last week I decided to submit my application to HBS for the September 2018 intake (application reference number: 914872838); please find attached the essay and resume shared.

Unfortunately, my current GMAT score is not exceptional (620), however, according to the website, it falls within the range scored by the candidates accepted in the September 2017 class (580-790). Given the highly competitive landscape, my main concern is that, due to the score, my application will not be even presented to the admissions committee, jeopardizing the chance to be invited for an interview. Do you have any advice on how to try to avoid this situation and make sure that the committee receives my application?

For reference, it appears that the interview decisions will be issued at the beginning of October, however I fear they might start sending rejections earlier.

I look forward to hearing from you and thank you again for your attention.

Best Regards,
Erica
