Great! Thank you for asking Rich! Condo has wood shutters while the patio has screen & roll down shutter (old type) The strong howling winds made shutters moved. It was a long long scary time. I thank God for keeping us safe and Condo intact.

We have power , we rely on radio for news since cable is out.

Thanks be to God, condo has no structural damage!

Rich , I apologized to Mr. Epstein , I was not able to read his emails sent Tuesday, because it went to iCloud w/c does not alert me. But Renato & me started Tuesday preparing his house.(pool & all), until late ThursdayI believed we did a good job. But we will see how PB property took the wrath of Irma. I pray your Mother in law is safe, you mentioned before she lives a few blocks away from me.

Thanks Rich
