anything is possible , but

We would need to remove Partition Wall that separates the existing Kitchen and Storage Room

Relocate Electrical Panel which is located in Partition Wall

Remove Coral Stone floor from Storage Room and lay marble to match existing kitchen floor, or remove both and install new floor?

Changes to kitchen design

Delay install of New Wood Floor

how do you wish to proceed

Tricky

As kitchen cabinets etc have already been designed around existing layout

Will review tomorrow and get back to you
