Conciliation- I suggest your position is simple. No need for a long battle- we can agree that the university does not have legal grounds for dismissal of a tenured professor. However they do not want me there. I am willing to listen to a fair proposal to leave ok. I didn't expect yes.. at least some fair fraction of this work was worthwhile in preparing the appeal letter. I am going to cut him loose after conciliation.. He is lawyer of record for that process, as you can see. But I am going to do my own preparation for the meeting.. Can't afford any more of him at this time.
