Here is the version I am sending in the a.m., for your files. I am only waiting on an email response from Adam Bosworth, to confirm that he was indeed at the banquet at the zoo, before sending. If he can't confirm that (his email to me suggested he was, but I want to confirm), I will remove that item and send. No more changes will be made. Note that I am not asking for investigation to be reopened. I am providing new evidence to them and asking them to consider it. A subtle difference but an important one. If they don't reopen and/or don't consider the new evidence, then more power to us after.
