Everyone has been asking how Dylan's community service project is going here it is in a short film(he shot this on Abas hand held camera)he made this summer. Thank you to everyone that has followed his journey. JTCc and Dylan thank you for all the support in all he does. I wish everyone a great Labor Day weekend and a great year in school...

JTCC's Community Outreach Journey

JTCC's Summer 2018 Community Outreach session providing tennis and academic instruction in underserved neighborhoods at 20 different locations across the greater Washington ■■■ area concluded on Friday, August 17.

Thanks to the efforts of Dylan Kogan (Summer 2018 Community Outreach Assistant Manager) over the last few weeks this video captures a sense of the opportunities that JTCC's outreach program creates for its participants on and off the tennis court:
