Sorry all, if I've dropped a ball but none of this was communicated with me before this morning. I understood Anna was in charge of this project. Last I'd heard they were to show up to assess things yesterday. I already had crew lined out for other projects, such as Peter, who was to be working on the concrete in front of RO/Main Compound. Happy to rearrange. Just need communication.

I'm here on LSJ with Kenny and all the countertops are on Island.

Kenny hasn't started because he's waiting for LSJ to bring his materials up at the Main Compound.

I'm here speaking with Peter right now to make it happen. Peter will help Kenny bring everything to the Main Compound right now

Mr Epstein,

The counter tops look horrible. The same chipped all the edges like we thought. Please see attached pics. Do I send Kenny back and stop install?
