Hello Mr. Wolff,

My name is Hakimah Shah. [REDACTED] a producer with Radical Media. We are developing a series about wealth and justice in America - part of which focuses on Mr. Jeffrey Epstein. It is our understanding that your relationship with Mr. Epstein dates back to the 90's. We are looking to paint a complete portrait of Mr. Epstein and hope that you can shed light on him as a businessman, philanthropist and beyond. We believe that your input is integral to our story.

Below I have provided some information about our company.

About Radical Media:

Radical Media is an Oscar®, Emmy®, Grammy® and Peabody® Award-winning studio whose work includes the Oscar®-winning documentary, The Fog of War, Oscar®-nominated and Emmy®-winning film, What Happened, Miss Simone? Among others. Additionally, the executive producer of this program is Joe Berlinger – a recognized pioneer in the genre of true crime documentaries. He has drawn attention to social justice issues in the U.S. and abroad in landmark films such as: Brother's Keeper, a DGA Award-winner and his trilogy for HBO titled Paradise Lost, about the West Memphis Three, (a group of teenage boys sentenced to death and life imprisonment for crimes they didn't commit). The Paradise Lost series is widely credited with helping to win the release of the wrongfully convicted boys, and won both Emmy and Peabody Awards, and earned Berlinger an Academy Award® nomination.

We hope that you will consider participating. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Hakimah Shah
