Here's the gist of what I asked Gilbert after your phone call... He feels certain that he would improve your condition and have you feeling significantly better, within a weeks time, based on what he saw in your MRIs. He's even willing to fly out there, and this man never likes to fly, to work with you twice a day for a week.

He would do a full evaluation and give you specific care... mobilizing fixated segments, adjusting you, showing you certain exercises, and as well, showing you what NOT to do to avoid exacerbating the condition.
