Ok,, Frank the pilot mentioned Watson island, but that is still closed for Heli ops.

The other is Miami Seaquarium, which requires prior approval, which I'm sure we can obtain, however, Uber or Taxi may be challenging at the Seaquarium, compared to the Signature arrival, I can have a taxi standing by at Signature, if you think that is best?

Darren found an open field by [REDACTED]

Darren is trying to contact the owner of the property to obtain permission to land the Heli.

He found the name of the owner on a Dade County Property Appraiser sight, he was creative, but it's a long shot,

If that doesn't work, best to land at Miami Airport FBO Signature Flight support, and Renato pick you up there?

Traffic driving from PBI - Miami at 7am could be rough.

I'll confirm all tomorrow afternoon.
