I take it all of the information you have written up in prospective op-Ed was never presented to judge Marra because you were not a party to this litigation? Is anyone seriously talking about a remedy being throw out the deal (long after it has been fully executed)?

What is sasse's angle? Does this Bradley Edwards have anything else in his life?

A federal judge in Florida ruled Thursday that prosecutors -- including current Secretary of Labor Alex Acosta -- violated federal law when they reached a plea agreement in 2007 with financier and sex offender Jeffrey Epstein and did not inform his dozens of victims.
