Good day Mr Epstein,

In regards to the rampant spreading of mould which was just discovered inside your Master Bedroom A/C vents, I was informed that Micheal Glidden was told about this issue and turned a blind eye to the matter but decided to go to the Barge Ramp for 2 hrs while they were installing the Barge bumpers. As a result, this perhaps might be the reason for the constant smelling inside your bedroom and causing you to get sick.

Thanks.

Regards,

Cashkim.
