First-Class Prosecco

No Italian celebration is complete without a glass of Prosecco, the world's best-selling fizz. Fabulo is a special release from the famed Botter family and the villages of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene (epicenter of great Prosecco). Salute!

Gold-Medal Pinot Grigio

Italy's finest Pinot Grigio comes from the Alpine north, where cool mountain air produces wines of exquisite freshness and purity. Guiseppe Secchi's textbook example was awarded a gold medal by Gilbert & Gaillard and is "light, lively, with lovely aromatic intensity."

A Piedmont Classic

Next stop, the rolling hills of Piedmont, where Barolo star Paolo Sartirano (inset, right) blends Barbera, Dolcetto, Cabernet and Merlot to make a 'Super Piemonte' red that pairs well with dishes featuring the region's other great specialty: truffles.

98-Point Southern Rarity

Last, not least, a rich, barrel-aged stunner from the Lento family's beautiful estate in Calabria (Italy's toe). Showcasing the ancient Magliocco grape, this unique red was rated 98 points and "one of the best reds of the year" by critic Luca Maroni. A must-try.
