Dear Friend of Tomche Shabbos,

Ah gutten chodesh!

At Tomche Shabbos, we are currently working feverishly as we prepare for Pesach. No, we aren't spring cleaning or chometz hunting, but we are preparing for our massive pre-Pesach delivery, when a line of tracker trailers will descend upon our warehouse, unloading thousands of boxes for our annual Pesach distribution.

As you prepare for Pesach, you can purchase the special Tomche Shabbos “Shabbos in a Bottle” grape juice bottles for your Seder.

Not only will you be passing on our mesorah of emunah to the children at that Seder table, but you will also be inspiring them with a tradition of chesed, activism, and the value of caring for others in need.

That full-day event will involve incredible manpower and carefully coordinated plans to ensure a smooth and efficient operation. Later in the day, our dedicated volunteers will arrive with trucks they borrowed from friends or rented at their own expense to distribute dozens of boxes to more than 1,100 struggling families.

Over the course of the day, we will unload and deliver close to 1,100 cases each of grape juice, chicken, eggs, apples, and oranges; over 50,000 pounds of potatoes; and truckloads of other foods.

To give you an idea of the cost of this delivery, here are some specific items and their total costs:

Matzoh: $183,250
Wine: $28,800
Grape juice: $23,760
Chicken: $72,819
Produce: $81,501
Romaine lettuce: $7,252
Horseradish: $9,300
Eggs: $63,609
Gefilte fish: $26,240
Apple Juice: $20,160

You can join our pre-Pesach campaign by clicking HERE to sponsor a specific family's Pesach delivery for $500, or donate any other amount.

Thank you for your continued support and may you and your family enjoy a beautiful yom tov together.

Chag kasher v'sameach,
Alan Rosenstock
