Good Afternoon

After emptying everything out of the Lodge, we realized the poor shape of the Formica Counter Tops, especially the office & master bathroom We obtained a quote for White Quartz for $4,500.00, given the size of the slabs there would be a little left over that we could place in the staff bathroom (1 sink counter top) at Ranch Central. Attached photos of the Formica Counter Tops in Office, Master Bathroom & Guest Bathroom. Understand if you would prefer to leave as is, but did not want you to be surprised about the the condition/color of existing Counter Tops

Please advise if we should leave as is or change out

Warmest regards
