I dont appreciate the tone of this at all. and assume i will never receive an email like this again. thx. I am understanding of your current stress, but will not allow you to make accusations of anyone especially me. however i know you are trying your best.

"Sending Cashkim every 48 hours to sneak off to find all the things we haven't gotten to yet while we are busting our tails on current projects is demoralizing both to me and the rest of the crew. It implies we are doing nothing, which is irritatingly contrary to the truth."
