Sir,

We need to select a countertop for the tiki kitchen.

I understood when you said photos do not help you choose countertops. However, Ghislaine warns that samples do not give an adequate picture of what the stone will look like on a large scale.

I need some guidance from you on what you envision for the tiki kitchen. Or, would you prefer I work with Karyna?

If you still have no interest in seeing photos, then stop reading here.

If you care to see a square of everything on one page, go here: [REDACTED]

Or, you can see a few selections I made below:

Granite

Ghislaine suggested granite for an exterior kitchen. However, granite seems very busy. Nevertheless, if you're feeling rowdy I've selected a few that I think would bring together the browns/grays/woods together nicely and look okay outdoors:

- G-1 [REDACTED]
- G-2 [REDACTED]
- G-3 [REDACTED]
- G-4 [REDACTED]
- G-5 [REDACTED]

Ghislaine also suggestions quartzite as a second choice. The solid white is what is going into the cabanas and FPP kitchen. Here are a few mild patterned choices in quartzite:

Quartzite Options:

- Q-1 [REDACTED]
- Q-2 [REDACTED]
- Q-3 [REDACTED]
- Q-4 [REDACTED]
- Q-5 [REDACTED] (might be getting rowdy again)

If you see any you like let me know. I can order samples so you can see it both ways.
