Just emailed him not to use the 63 par rebuttal format, to write as a more traditional response, and that Darren is forwarding your edits, suggestions under common interest agreement. I am off computer after this email for awhile and in court tomorrow so wanted Darren in loop, hope that's OK.

Safer to let Alan just write them. We certainly would be expected to check on what he did/didn't do during investigation. I don't want to suggest its there choice and later have

Alan tell the reporter he has knowledge. Alternative is we don't care if he answers by par.

The threshold issue is whether we release Alan to do an answer in the par by par format. John thinks we should not authorize Alan to use the questions. The alternative is he can write a letter without the paragraphs.

no

, lynn forresterl . silly she hates both of us.

but if he prefers to say Lynn told him that I was her financial advisor<sup>13</sup> he never introduced me to anyone, Steven J. Gould and Marvin Minsky did<sup>18</sup> leave out<sup>19-22</sup>. all allegations never tested under oath<sup>23</sup>, his video were placed there by the police and caught

houseman which they quote<sup>24-27</sup> unsubstated allegations<sup>30</sup>. he was the only person talking to krisher be careful<sup>31</sup> it comes from a quote re the difference between murder and prostitution<sup>32</sup> he did present my space to krisher.

34 35. searches

never happend , palintiffs lawyers fabrications38, careful . he and roy worked together39 grand jury one count of list. If there are portions (like naming all the names)

that we want out, it should be communicated. We had every right to ask him about certain paragraphs. I have sent

this only to you for review.
