As you've seen, as we get close to the third rail, my general presumption is to let lie the inaccuracy. But let's see how this nets out. Of the things JE needs at the moment, more trouble is not one of them.

I would suppose it might be a good idea for the three of us to review together before we get JE on the phone. Best use of his time; helps us get a common POV where things line up.

John, We must make sure not to walk JE into a defamation case if he answers the [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] allegations or contempt for violating a confidential settlement agreement. Makes a full response hard. Leaving to you how to best answer mistakes without reinforcing what we don't dispute.

I'm happy to do it any time after 9:00 AM Eastern time. We obviously don't have to answer any questions we don't wish to address.

It's a coup that you got them to send the questions via email. Congrats.
