Dear Darren

(dear Jeffrey in copy)

I have a tax audit going on, as it happens regularly in my lovely country, and I will have to prove that I am not beneficial owner of Prytanee

I would therefore likely require:

- (i) A certificate of incorporation (with IRS tax number) for Prytanee
- (ii) A proof (from the bank or CPA) that I am not the beneficial owner of any Prytanee bank account
- (iii) A proof (CPA?) that I am not a shareholder or owner or controller of Prytanee, directly or indirectly.

Antonin and Veronique are my trusted advisors. This request is urgent, as I need to avoid to have the tax guys thinking I am using "undisclosed" amounts that are in fact mine.

I will let Veronique and Antonin go on with this conversation under attorney privilege, if need be, without Jeffrey or me.

Véronique, Antonin: Darren is the right guy to talk to about Prytanee- keep me posted when it's done.

All the best
