First, congratulations to Charlotte for running, trudging, stumbling and falling through that beast of a race! Stats:

102.9 miles in 32 hours and 49 minutes
Over 20,000 vertical feet
231 registered
204 showed up and raced
83 dropped out
121 finished
Charlotte placed 8th amongst the women and 67th overall putting her in the top 1/3 amongst starters.
9 women dropped out and 18 finished

Here are Charlotte's race statistics:

Second, we are approaching $20,000 in funds raised in memory of my sister - proceeds going to services for underprivileged people in south Florida with eating disorders. Thank you to so many of you who donated! And to anyone that has not yet done so, I unabashedly ask you to help us break the $20k mark.

Again thank you to all! Here is the donation link:

Remember to select "in Memory of Wendy Eigen"

Best,

David

and raising money for a wonderful eating disorder clinic and services provider in South Florida. Run by a woman who in her earlier years suffered from the same eating disorder as my sister, the funds are to be donated in my sister's memory to "The Alliance for Eating Disorders Awareness."

They will be launching a new program: The Alliance's Psychological Services, which will aid those who are uninsured/underinsured in the community and offer very low cost, direct life-saving treatment for eating disorders in an outpatient setting.

To donate directly, please click on this link: [REDACTED]

Steps:

1. On the donation page to which you are directed, at the TOP of the page, there is a pulldown entitled "Program." In memory of Wendy Eigen is the first option - please select that.

3. A bit below on that page, check "Honorary or Memorial Gift" and then type in "Charlotte" or "Charlotte's Race"

You can also mail in a (check) donation to:

The Alliance for Eating Disorders Awareness
1649 Forum Place #2
West Palm Beach, FL 3340

Last but not least, only 1/3 of the starters usually finish this race. If you know Charlotte, you know she will finish!

We are in for $2,500 on top of a recent $10,000 donation. We intend to continue to give at or above these levels for a long time.

Let's make those miles count. Thank you for your help!
