1 had I known in the beginning what i know now, I would never have gotten involved with ana s issue never ! ever! . / I have 40 years of experience dealing with the IRS , I never have cheated ,evaded or crafted ridiculous returns . I am manical in taking carefully crafted thoughtful positions that even if I dont win the full amount ,(and i have no recollection of any total loss on any position.) . my credibility with the IRS is unsurpassed. my research is detailed and the case laws are always relevant. Ana is emblematic of my warning s and advice that continues to go unheeded. . I have repeatedly told you that these girls , all want to show that they are clever, they have no experience with the rules, money or biz . and always push the envelope beyond the pale unfortunately usually ending up getting the principal in trouble. . (sometimes by design , but i m sure , not in this case). For six months I have asked you , her and her gay bookkeeper if there was something i didn't know , as I found this entire exercise highly unusual. highly after you with the usual voice of authority telling me in no uncertain terms "what the agent really wants" . I continue to be amazed how you , barry, and brad share very strong detailed views without even one day of true experience. I will review with you the facts on the phone .

2. I can easily ignore the fact that your concern of deductibility of the first 100 million that saved your financial life. and provided a resurrection of 3 billion dollars of grats that had died is not balanced by the recognition of what you had received and not then even paid for . Each time you have chosen not to pay what we agreed. or what has been written by me in many emails BEFORE the transactions are complete. you tell me that tom and joslins advice is one of the reasons that you feel you shouldn't pay the amount owed written or agreed. (this only happens AFTER you have received the benefits of course) you then add the easily refuted argument that it was Alan's idea. BTW It is and would have been super easy for you to set a meeting if you had chosen to. you met with brad. there are memos. there are emails (which you choose not even to look at , for , I can only assume . for the fear that it is as clear as I suggest it is .). lets assume that i show you alan had minuscule input,at the very end . way after the fact , no involvement in the crafting of the idea - to a transaction that saved your family 600 million dollars. or that in fact the first hundred or the full 175 actually now gets you a benefit that you have been going on about . . what then ?! will there be more reasons that appear why agreed amounts should not be paid. or are you suggesting we going to go through this exercise for its amusement value

3 It seems you have forgotten that you asked for my HELP! . Gigi, Carlyn, audit , gift tax audit audit. 8865, gagosian contract. underpayment of Apollo offshore. tax. now AF and A . - it is wholly unfair that after I tell you what I will charge , you say , don't worry _ we always work it out, complete the transaction to your benefit and then and only then you decide not to pay , the refrain I never agreed to your emails or agreed to follow our agreement which I unilaterally considered null and void because I did.

4 Frankly, its Harder to ignore the fact that after helping you save millions and millions on the Giacometti. (including now for the first time , having to record a 5 million dollar loss in my trust . you have even forgotten about the lotus flowers you had promised to deliver and have miraculously not even offered to buy me a lunch

. not sure what is going on. but it is clearly not the normal you.
