Dear Oscar,

It was good to connect over the call today. Look forward to exchanging the NDA and meeting with your team in LA next week. As per our conversation I am sharing the information on the Jiyo "Internet of Wellbeing" platform founded by Dr.Chopra. The goal of this platform is to provide curated content/insights based on a users context and designed to work seamlessly across devices (e.g. Connected Home, mobile/web). We currently deploying this platform as part of the connected wellness real-estate platform at LakeNona. The platform provides the ability to integrated with existing content from Jiyo/Chopra Center and 3PV to provide the consumer with contextual services.

Look forward to exploring synergies with respect to integrating wellbeing content/services with your in-car health/wellness strategy. I can shared the details with respect to the integration with facial recognition, voice stress analysis, other key features once we execute an NDA and during our face to face meeting.

With gratitude,

Poonacha

NOTE: Attached a high level overview on the Jiyo platform.

Dear David,

Can we have a call on Monday/Tuesday next week? I would like to get an understanding of your strategic interest and also bring you upto speed with Deepak's tech/content portfolio that may be relevant in the connected car/health segment.

Kindly suggest some times slots that work for you and I will make myself available. I am based out of San Diego and my mobile is: 858-249-9130.

With gratitude,

Poonacha

Dear Deepak

It would be a pleasure to discuss this with you.
I am currently in Zurich and will return to Hong Kong (where I live) next week.

Maybe we can have a chat on the phone?
And also should you be in LA soon maybe you meet the CEO and our team?

Best wishes
David
