Thank you so much for asking them for me

I like our plan to up the cymbalta gradually and see how I feel but I can definitely go see one if you think...

I think would start with [REDACTED] list as it is here. (I have already been to one from her who was not great and had me on 450 wellbutrin with the cymbalta, think 450 wellbutrin is way too much for me)

They all seem to say the same (and ive been to about 6) - SSRI with some wellbutrin. I suppose the question is which SSRI, and do the different ones make that much difference. the reason I think your plan makes sense is that im already on cymbalta, why not try it first?
