If you are going to change the carpet and seats it will take 12 weeks anyway . Pre buy location , outs in contract , who pays for what etc

We need to hear from you sooner rather than later on whether you want the G650 divider if you buy the Bass Brothers plane. The divider takes 6 weeks to install, even after it is built. So this issue may dictate the timing of closing. We are drafting a letter of intent for the purchase, and need to incorporate the rough timing into that.

As discussed, the divider is already constructed, and they will throw it in for free.

You could elect to take with the curtain, put the divider in storage and later decide to install the divider. But since it takes 6 weeks to do that, this option could prove quite disruptive to your future use of the plane.

Maybe you could either call me, or just let Melanie know what you want.
