i do spend time , it is your responsibility to act on it, instead of whining that you are losing a friend. lets get moving and deal with progress. i know how hard you have tried. and respect that

I asked you what happened and you said nothing. I didn't know you had put in such time and effort. I later learned you had had a phone conversation with him. I don't like to use your time or cause you stress and that is generally why I try my best to stay away from you with any problems related to men, school, visa etc. Honestly it was a shock to me and difficult to hear that another person I have trusted and held in high regard may not be who I thought they were, and my reaction was to that and not thinking of the time it had taken to find out. Honesty, integrity and truth are obvious givens to me and I thought for most people, and it seems like each day I am learning that those things that I thought to have are actually rare qualities in people. I have the deepest gratitude to you for all that you do for me and all that you give me every single day. I don't want you spending your time on me.
