Dear Larry,

Good morning from sunny Monaco. Could you please pass the following communique along to Mr. Epstein.

Thank-you in advance for your Offer to Purchase Boeing BBJ YG-062 for 19.0 million USD. We had a long talk this morning with the Owner of the aircraft in China.

Unfortunately your Offer has been rejected and no formal Counter Offer was given. This Owner is a very wealthy man and he doesn't need to sell that badly, even if he wants to sell. He feels a fair price for the aircraft with be something between 23-25 million USD.

Therefore it certainly doesn't look like there is a deal here for Mr. Epstein.

In my conversations with Mr. Epstein, I mentioned to him , openly and honestly that the "BEST DEAL "on a BBJ was that of Royal Jet S/N 30884 YG-038, and at 17.0 million there was nothing in the market to compete. In my last conversation with Royal Jet , I believe something a "Little "less might by the aircraft but it certainly won't go for much less than 16.5-16.7 . I can almost guarantee that statement without reservation . Mr. Epstein also mentioned that no matter what aircraft he bought , he wanted to redo the interior to reflect his taste. Therefor maybe the Royal Jet aircraft is the best choice for you.

I would be happy to make an Offer on the Royal Jet aircraft on behalf of Mr. Epstein if he wanted me to.....as my private investment company Windstar Capital is an exclusion to the current Sparfell listing agreement. I believe we might be able to save you a little commission, if you chose to channel your interests through us.

Lastly, I have one more presentation for Mr. Epstein, which I will provide you with over separate cover.

Very best regards

Bob P.

Bob,

We are willing to bid $19M for YG062. We will put $2 million deposit. They can want in the $20's, but there are no real buyers. Wanting is easy, otherwise they will sit like Royal Jet hoping, but no movement.

Thx,
Larry
