Dear Jeffrey,

I put some advertisement for the job but most of them are not accepted by websites because I discriminate against male candidates and everyone over 24 years old when i put an ad with the needed criteria. I created paid ads on facebook which target only needed audience. screenshot on how it appears is attached. lets hope there will be quality candidates then.

Ebony will get in touch with us once she finishes the job. it sounds very intense. sent you screenshots on whats up. I keep on hunting at bars when i have a moment from work. All my friends have already been interviewed by you..but somehow noone is good enough :/

have a great weekend ahead!!

Kind regards/Cordialement,

[REDACTED]

p.s. great news - my 8 interviews in london paid off...they offered a position orally for now at [REDACTED]. lets hope that they can make me a work permit within next 4-6 months

p.p.s. when can I see you Jeffrey ?
