Rich is working on 54mm of "business income" and the six or so other categories besides interest (already forwarded) this weekend. Goal is to have a fairly complete package by monday. I expect each category of income to present unique issues in terms of "simple/clear" back-up. As barry notes, we'll have to figure out early next week what our best response to irs is (and you mentioned what type of package, if any, we want to send to irs. I told tom NOT to reach out to IRS monday am without speaking to you for scripting. B

If we want to take the position that the second letter from the IRS obviates the need to send the package we just sent you, attached is an alternate letter we could send in response to the first IRS letter.
